Decided against holding a trivia night this year

Other ideas:

Guest speakers:

Nigel Latta - $5000 90-min talk

Nathan Wallace or Mike King would be good

John Cowan $900

Lisa and Alison investigating.

Dumplings:

Social cooking class for parents run by Rae. $15/person to cover costs of food

Thursday evening 6 September. Wine for sale.

Possibility of offering Nespresso machines for sale at a reduced price (Mike can provide at wholesale cost, PTA can put on a moderate mark up. Orders could be taken at the dumpling night.

Cornerstone plaques - need to promote

TOTAL	$22 410.60

5. Rae update

Advertising billboard - letter to David Seymour passed on to Christine Fletcher requesting help to expedite consent process. No reply as yet.

6. Review of Pick 'n Mix

Went well	Not well	Future a-thons
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Amount raised exceeded expectations All prizes were donated Students learning to skip Lots of prizes for students (136) Good replacement for art exhibition Word bank for trivia champion Students had choice Answers were sent home 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Hard to manage five different options Harder for teachers to schedule practice time for every area A lot of the organisation was done at school Needed to be more fun More positive hype needed 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Single choice Term 2 good but earlier Mix of trivia, word and maths in one quiz
